These terms apply from 1 January 2024.

1 GENERAL

Issuers of listed financial instruments, members and other clients of Oslo Børs shall pay fees to Oslo Børs in accordance with the rates and terms and conditions in force at the time in question. In addition, the Exchange may agree to provide services for which a separate fee will be charged as per arrangement.

2 ISSUERS OF SHARES, BONDS, ETC

2.1 INTRODUCTION FEES FOR ADMISSION

Issuers must pay an introduction fee (one-time charge) for admission of their financial instruments to listing or trading. The fee is calculated on the basis of the market capitalization of the issuer on the first day of trading.

Where a demerger leads to a new company being admitted to listing, the introduction fee is applicable according to the continuing obligations section 12.2. In a situation of demerger, merger or other changes of significance, an introduction fee is applicable if the Exchange impose the Company to send a document with the same content as required for an application to listing according to continuing obligations section 4.7.1 (3), ref 4.7.2 and 4.7.3.

For listed shares denominated in another currency than NOK, the fee shall be calculated and invoiced in NOK based on the conversion rate between NOK and the relevant currency on the first day of trading.

2.2 LISTING FEE

Issuers of financial instruments must pay an annual listing fee.

The Exchange calculates the market value of the listed capital on 31 December in the preceding year as the basis for the listing fee levied on shares, purchase rights to shares and equity capital certificates. The listing fee payable in respect of loans is based on the nominal value of the listed capital on 31 December in the preceding year.

For issuers with more than one listed class of shares, the fee is determined on the basis of the market value of all listed capital. Where there is more than one class of shares, a fixed fee is levied on each additional class of shares.

Where financial instruments are admitted to listing during the year, a prorated listing fee is charged from and including the quarter the financial instruments are admitted to listing. The fee levied on loans is determined on the basis of the nominal value of the admitted capital on the first day of trading. The fee payable in respect of other financial instruments is based on the market value of the admitted capital on the first day of trading.

In respect of financial instruments with a face value expressed in a currency other than Norwegian kroner, the fee is determined and paid in Norwegian kroner on the basis on the exchange rate of Norwegian kroner and the currency in question as of 31.12 or the first day of trading. Bonds with an original maturity of less than 12 months (certificates) must pay a registration fee per month.

Shares delisted during the year are charged listing fee for the entire year when the delisting takes place. Exception applies to issuers who apply for de-listing, when de-listing is completed in the first quarter in the year after the application for de-listing is received, where annual fee for the second part of the year of de-listing will be refunded. In respect of bonds, the listing fee is charged to and including the quarter when the bond reached the ordinary due date.

The suspension or temporary delisting of a financial instrument does not affect the listing fee.

To the extent possible, billing will occur in January.

2.3 INSPECTION FEE

The Securities Trading Act and Oslo Børs' Issuer Rules require issuers to prepare certain documents that are subject to inspection by Oslo Børs. Issuers preparing these documents must pay an inspection fee to the Exchange. An inspection fee is also charged for transfers between the market places at Oslo Børs. The applicable fees are set out in the current schedule of fees.

To the extent possible, the fee payable under the first paragraph will be billed without delay once the Exchange has inspected the document.

2.4 REGISTRATION FEE

Issuers of listed financial instruments must pay a registration fee in respect of each amendment or change leading to a new security number being listed.

In the event of an increase in capital, a registration fee is charged based on the market value of the capital increase. The fee is calculated on the basis of the closing price on the registration date.

Billing for the abovementioned will occur once the listing is effected.
