FFastFill's trading front-end FFastFill's trading front-end is driven by the needs of traders and provides functionality that enables both traders and brokers to interact with the market in the fastest and most efficient way possible. The user friendly and highly configurable application allows fast set-up to enable the trader to concentrate on trading. Multiple products across multiple markets can be traded simultaneously from the same workstation.

Complementing this high level of functionality, the FFastFill trainer has been designed to meet the increase in graduate and trainee trading schemes. The trainer uses real-time price feeds from the exchange and allows the user full market interaction without any risk to capital.
