

GNI touch

Technology has revolutionised derivatives trading, placing the individual on a level playing field with the institutional traders. GNI touch® is now the accepted market-leading provider of front-end solutions for derivatives and equity trading.

GNI touch® Futures clients currently transact in excess of 25 million contracts each month, from a client base ranging from private traders through to Hedge Funds, Banks and other major institutions.

Our platforms offer direct access to Liffe and all other major European and U.S futures exchanges. The Trading Platforms provide the client with the comfort of a robust risk-management system, allowing individually tailored position limits to be set.

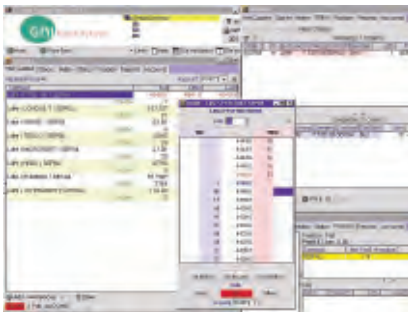

There is a 24-hour Trade Support and Telephone Dealing desk. These teams can provide immediate reports on the progress of any order and can execute any global Future or Option via the telephone.
