

Schneider Group

(Clearing through Man Financial)

Schneider Group provides trading access and clearing facilities to the global electronic futures, options, equity, FX and cash markets, for proprietary traders, market makers, execution brokerage and regulated investment management businesses. Through its main operating entity Schneider Trading Associates Limited, the Group is a specialist in the provision of on site screen based trading infrastructure and has a significant presence in the European derivative markets.

Traders are supported by in-house brokerage and market analysis departments, with access to a wide choice of front-end trading software applications and market news vendors. By taking responsibility for operational, risk management and finance related issues, the Schneider Group gives traders the best possible chance of success and the freedom to concentrate on trading.
