

Turtle Futures Limited

(Clearing Through Fortis Bank Global Clearing N.V.)

Turtle Futures Limited is a privately owned company that has been successfully trading electronic markets since 1998.

We provide trading facilities and access to all major electronic exchanges for professional independent traders in our main office located in the heart of Chelmsford.

We can also provide office space in the city of London if so required.

Due to the wealth of experience in trading electronic markets and a professional relationship with our clearer, it is possible for us to be very competitive in this growing marketplace.
