PROJECT: Multi-decimal trading

Multi-decimal trading: third round of tests for participating members in the French marketplace

Further to the info-flash of 8 February 2008 with regard to the multi-decimal trading tests, Euronext would like to remind participating members from the French market that the second round of tests on the three French stocks listed in the table below ends today - Friday, 7 March 2008. Any outstanding orders for these stocks on Euronext's External User Acceptance (EUA) platform will be cancelled after trading hours today.

For the third and final round of tests, the French stocks used during the test period will be quoted to two decimal places as from the morning of Monday, 10 March 2008, and a fixed tick size of €0.01 will be applied. These stocks will be quoted to three decimal places once again as from the morning of Thursday, 13 March 2008, and the fixed tick size of €0.005 will be applied, without any cancelling of orders.
