Ecco offers a unique and innovative trading system for derivatives, cash equities, FX & US Treasuries that delivers the ultimate in speed, reliability and ease of use. Our flagship product, EccoPro, is simple to install, backed by excellent support, and includes a range of functionality and trading tools second to none.

EccoPro

EccoPro's unique architecture gives professional traders the fastest direct access to the world's leading derivatives, equities exchanges and eSpeed's electronic marketplaces. EccoPro has a feature-rich graphical user interface with a winning combination of add-ons and tools for real flexibility and trading power. When directly connected, EccoPro frequently outperforms similar systems in busy or fast markets.

EccoSpreader

EccoSpreader was the original - and is still considered the best - spread trading tool in the market. For simple or sophisticated cross-market multi-leg spreading and the reduced risk of automation, EccoSpreader is smart, flexible and adaptive, maximising fills under a variety of market conditions. Nothing beats the EccoSpreader for ease of use and precise execution of your trading strategies up to 30 legs.

EccoAPI

Whether you use Excel spreadsheets or sophisticated black box algorithmic trading engines, EccoAPI offers a single, straightforward programming interface to extend and automate your trading. Access all the markets, all the features and all the functions through one interface. Test your trading models against live market data with Ecco's simulator. With EccoAPI, integration has never been easier allowing you to invest your resources in identifying and exploiting trading opportunities, not development work.
