PROJECT: Universal Trading Platform for Equities – Order Entry Protocol

Updated UTP-Direct specifications for order entry on the Universal Trading Platform

Further to the info-flash of 30 October 2008, NYSE Euronext is pleased to inform clients that an update of the “Universal Trading Platform for Equities UTP-Direct Message Specifications”, v1.3 is now available on the Euronext website.

This version of the UTP-Direct specifications has been updated with the following items:

- Session management: field encoding details
- Administrative message: user name and filler field length change
- Cancel and replace kinematics
- Field conditions: mandatory, conditional, optional

The UTP-Direct protocol will allow clients to trade on the Universal Trading Platform only, and will give access to all the functionalities of the platform.

This document is now available on the Euronext website at the following location:
