PROJECT: NYSE Arca Europe

NYSE Arca Europe opens a new door onto Europe

NYSE Euronext is pleased to inform clients of the implementation schedule for its new multilateral trading facility NYSE Arca Europe.

NYSE Arca Europe is scheduled to launch in late January 2009 for the trading of pan-European blue-chip stocks. Stocks from 10 countries will be phased in to cover Austria, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland and the UK. Powered by NYSE Euronext's Universal Trading Platform technology, NYSE Arca Europe complements NYSE Euronext's existing regulated markets and the soon-to-be-launched block trading facility SmartPool, and provides customers with access to a full range of execution solutions.

Membership

In order to join NYSE Arca Europe, please complete the Membership Extension Form which can be found on the Euronext website in the following location: www.euronext.com/NAE.

Clearing

EuroCCP has been selected to provide post-trade services at launch. Customers interested in trading on NYSE Arca Europe should ensure that their clearing member is part of EuroCCP and should confirm that a Clearing Agreement is in place between their firm and their clearing partner. Please note that the clearing partner utilised on the Euronext regulated market does not need to be the same clearing partner for NYSE Arca Europe. At this time, there are eleven (11) clearing partners connected to EuroCCP. If you would like the list of EuroCCP clearing partners, please contact your local account manager, or visit www.euroccp.co.uk.

End to end testing between each Member and EuroCCP can be carried out once the confirmation of the clearing sponsorship link has been received and validated by EuroCCP.

Connectivity & Related Documentation

NYSE Arca Europe is currently available for testing on the External User Acceptance (EUA) test platform. To make arrangements for testing, please contact the Euronext Customer Readiness Team (cts.operations@euronext.com).

Previously communicated documentation relating to the new Universal Trading Platform that is relevant to NYSE Arca Europe is now available on the Euronext website, a list of which appears on the following page:
