PROJECT: Universal Trading Platform for Luxembourg Stock Exchange

Universal Trading Platform – Migration of Luxembourg Stock Exchange markets

Further to the successful migration of NYSE Euronext's European regulated cash markets (bonds, equities and ETFs), NYSE Euronext is pleased to confirm the migration of Luxembourg Stock Exchange securities and order books from the NSC trading system to the Universal Trading Platform.

Luxembourg Stock Exchange securities and order books will be available for trading on the Universal Trading Platform as of Monday, 9 March 2009.

Please be reminded that the migration of securities and order books to the Universal Trading Platform will be made without any order cancellation.

Members of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange will be able to trade securities on the Universal Trading Platform as of Monday, 9 March 2009. Please note that the new collar logic, available with the Universal Trading Platform, will not be implemented for Luxembourg Stock Exchange securities at the moment.

The External User Acceptance (EUA) test environment has been available for clients to test their software developments and the new trading engine since Friday, 6 February 2009.

Documentation about the required technical and/or functional changes is available on the Euronext website at:

www.euronext.com/cashmembers > Market / IT documentation > Guides and procedures

The amended Rule Book and Trading Manual which reflect the functional changes are now available on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange website at the following address:

www.bourse.lu > Services > Market description
