

Headway Trading is an innovative, fast growing Proprietary Trading House based in the City of London. We provide trading access to the global electronic futures, options, equity, FX and cash markets, for prop traders.

Headway's success is built on its traders. Knowledgeable, experienced, trustworthy and approachable, our traders are at the peak of their talents. In an erratic financial environment, Headway traders are quick to adapt, dynamic in their approach and resolute in their understanding of whatever the market might throw up. With our combination of fundamental and technical analysis, and our commitment to preparing you for what is going to happen in the market, Headway can help make you the trader you really want to be.
