What entrepreneurs think of IPOready

The INSEAD webinars added significant value to the IPOready programme. They provided a comprehensive overview of strategic thinking and leadership, which are critical elements for companies aiming to scale sustainably.

Alessandra Di Pietro
CFO & BOARD MEMBER, Società Chimica Bussi
IPOready participant, Italy

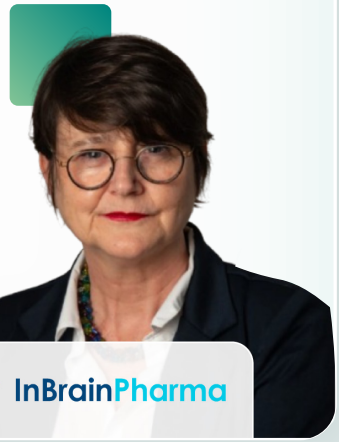

I value the IPOready programme greatly; it provided me with several eye-openers. One of them is understanding when you are ready or able to do an IPO. I used to think that a company had to be much larger, but I realised that smaller companies can also do an IPO.

Rudolf Maas Geesteranus
CFO, GET-E International BV
IPOready participant, The Netherlands

The IPOready programme is a great insight into the IPO process, as well as the needed degree of preparedness your company needs. The programme represents also an outstanding networking opportunity with the Euronext team, its business partners as well as peers.

Véronique Foutel
CEO, InBrain Pharma
IPOready participant, France

The IPOready programme touches many important aspects of the path that companies should consider when going public or addressing the capital markets. It offers a very holistic view of the whole process. This clears very much some doubts that most of companies and leaders may have about their growth path.

Pedro Rodrigues
CFO, The Lakhani Group

What entrepreneurs think of IPOready

I think the IPOready programme is really an eye-opener on everything what is needed to get to the IPO.
I had a common sense of what is needed, but the programme goes into the practical details of what is needed to put in place, from a company's perspective

Virginie Cartage
CFO, Augustine Therapeutics
IPOready participant, Belgium

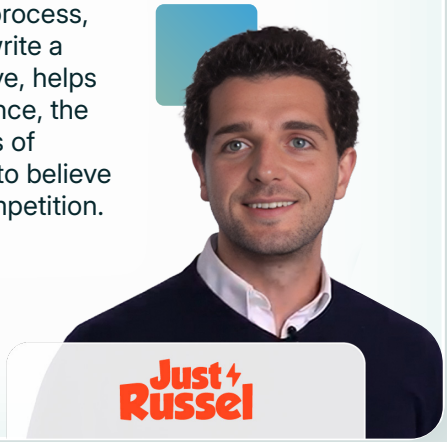

Under-promise, over-deliver! The IPOready programme fits perfectly into our approach of preparation and anticipation for a possible IPO. This programme will allow us to better understand the major issues of an IPO and consider moving to the next level.

Sébastien Guillot
CEO, CF Group France
IPOready participant, France

The IPOready programme gives you a very comprehensive overview of the IPO process, its advantages and how you should write a good equity story. It's super interactive, helps you with what is your frame of reference, the market you're in, what are your points of differentiation, but also your reasons to believe and why you will outcompete the competition.

Victor Mortreu
Co-Founder, Just Russel
IPOready participant, Belgium

The IPOready programme is very useful to get an idea about what you are about to venture into. It is also a great opportunity to meet new people and establish a good network before you start the process.
