EURONEXT AMSTERDAM WELCOMES UNILEVER PLC.

LISTING AND FIRST DAY OF TRADING FOR UNILEVER PLC SHARES ON EURONEXT

Amsterdam – 30 November 2020 – Euronext today congratulates Unilever on the new listing of Unilever PLC shares on Euronext’s regulated market in Amsterdam (ticker code: UNA).

The listing follows the unification of Unilever’s corporate structure, through which the previous dual parent company structure has been simplified to a single parent company, Unilever PLC.

Following the admission of Unilever PLC shares, the new listing of Unilever PLC consists of 2,629,243,772 ordinary shares with a reference price of €50.26 each, representing a total market capitalisation of €132,145,791,981. Unilever PLC will replace the shares of Unilever N.V., listed on the Amsterdam market since 1930, in the AEX-family.

The decision by Unilever to dual list the shares of Unilever PLC on Euronext Amsterdam underlines the attractiveness and relevance of the European capital market, and the access Euronext provides to the global investor community.

Alan Jope, CEO of Unilever, said: “Today is an important day for Unilever. The completion of the unification of Unilever’s dual headed legal structure gives us greater flexibility for strategic portfolio change, removes complexity and further improves governance. These benefits have been fully recognised by shareholders of both Unilever NV and Unilever PLC, who both voted overwhelmingly in favour of our plans. I am very pleased that – as of this morning – Unilever PLC shares have been admitted to listing and trading on Euronext in Amsterdam and will continue to be included in the AEX Index. I look forward to continuing our longstanding relationship with Euronext.”
