PART II - SERVICE REGULATIONS

TITLE I – CENTRAL SECURITIES DEPOSITORY SERVICE

CHAPTER I – THE NOTARY SERVICE

Article 15 – Characteristics of the Service

1. The notary service comprises the initial registration of an issue of dematerialized or paper-based financial instruments, or part of the same, in the accounting records system maintained by Monte Titoli, as central depository.
2. The initial registration mentioned by paragraph 1 may be requested by the issuers or entities who operate on their behalf.
3. Monte Titoli ensures the integrity of the issue, or part thereof, initially registered in its accounting records system, through the reconciliation measures set forth by article 20, in accordance with article 37 of the CSDR.
4. Notices to and from Monte Titoli concerning the central securities depository service are made exclusively via electronic networks, in the manner and within the terms specified by Monte Titoli in the Service Instructions and Operating Documents.

Article 16 – Participation requirements

1. Legal entities that comply with the requirements of article 6 of these Rules, may be admitted to the service as issuers.
2. Issuers may avail themselves of third parties provided the conditions provided by Article 17 are complied with in full, for the management of the operating procedures and technological systems used for participation in the service.

Article 17 - Requirements for Service Providers

1. For the management of the operating procedures and technological systems used for participation in the central securities depository service, issuers may use entities who have entered into a specific contract with Monte Titoli ("service centres").

2. The agreement between Monte Titoli and the Service Provider shall moreover provide:
 - a) that Monte Titoli, or its representatives may verify, on the premises of the Service Provider, full compliance with the requirements set forth by the Rules;
 - b) the obligation for the Service Provider to adopt back-up and disaster recovery procedures and to adopt the technical and infrastructural requirements specified by Monte Titoli in the Service Manual according to the type of operation.
3. The Issuer or Intermediary shall have adequate documentation on its premises relevant to the architecture, functionalities, operating procedures, service levels, controls and contractual guarantees of the activities assigned to the Service Provider.
4. The agreement between the Service Provider and issuer shall also state if the Service Provider in turn avails itself of third parties to perform a part of the services assigned to the same. Should the Service Provider avail itself of third parties, Monte Titoli shall be entitled to check the adequacy of the technological structure even on the premises of the third party used by the Service Provider. Issuers—shall send to Monte Titoli, even as an excerpt, contractual clauses that reflect the requirements provided by this paragraph.
5. Where Monte Titoli finds that access to the Service of an Issuer that uses the service provider and/or the service provider cause, or may cause:
 - a) technical problems to Monte Titoli;
 - b) interference with access to the Service of any entity; or
 - c) any risk to the ordinary operation of the Service; or
 - d) any risk, for Monte Titoli, of breach of its regulatory responsibilities,

Monte Titoli may, upon notice to all the entities concerned, suspend access to the System of the Issuer, or give instructions to this end to the Service Provider, that the latter should follow up without delay.

In any case, Monte Titoli retains the right to limit the number of participants that a Service Provider can connect to the Service in the event of (i) persistent technical problems affecting a significant number of entities that use the Service Provider and/or if (ii) the Service Provider is unable to modify its systems to make them compatible with updates made by Monte Titoli.

Article 18 – Requirements for the admission of financial instruments

1. The following categories of financial instruments may be initially recorded in the accounting records of Monte Titoli:

- a) securities tradable on the capital market, including commercial papers;
- b) the shares/units of collective investment undertakings;
- c) money-market instruments;

2. The financial instruments regulated by Italian law may be admitted on condition that they have the characteristics set forth by article 33 of the "Post-trading Regulations".
3. The financial instruments not regulated by Italian law may be admitted on condition that:
 - a) they have the same characteristics set forth by paragraph 2, where they are compatible with the provisions of corporate law, or any other similar law, of the legal system that the issuer declares is applicable to such instruments;
 - b) the issuer attests that there are no impediments of any kind that may prevent the initial registration in Monte Titoli's accounting system, or the application of these Rules and the relevant Instructions.
4. For the admission of financial instruments not regulated by Italian law, Monte Titoli assesses the provisions of corporate law, or any other similar law, of the legal system that the issuer declares to be applicable to the instruments, in order to verify whether specific measures are necessary to allow the issuer and intermediaries to comply with these provisions. The fact that Monte Titoli is unable to adopt the specific measures required by the application of the above provisions is important in terms of refusing access pursuant to article 49, paragraph 3 of the CSDR.
5. As regards the circumstances certified pursuant to paragraph 3 and assessed pursuant to paragraph 4, Monte Titoli reserves the right to ask the issuer to provide a legal opinion drawn up by a lawyer qualified to practice the profession under the law that the issuer declares to be applicable to such instruments.
6. Monte Titoli reserves the right to ask the issuer to provide a specific legal opinion - or to renew the opinion produced upon admission - in the case of important changes to the applicable provisions that may affect the same circumstances.

Article 19 - Initial registration of the financial instruments

1. For the initial registration, Monte Titoli opens, for each issuer, an account in which the information relevant to each issue are separated, containing all the information necessary to identify the characteristics of the issue and, in any case, the type of financial instrument, the ID, the quantity issued, the total value of the issue, the split and any related rights.
2. Monte Titoli shall make the initial registration of the financial instruments by recording them on the Intermediaries' account and as a contra-entry on the Issuer's account, according to the specific crediting instructions given by the latter. The initial registration of paper-based financial instrument is carried out upon delivery of the relative certificates to Monte Titoli.
3. In order to verify the placement or subscription of new issue financial instruments, Monte Titoli credits the financial instruments on the intermediaries' accounts when the amount from the subscription or placement is credited on the account of the collecting bank delegated by the issuer, according to the operating procedures described in the Instructions. Taking into account the characteristics of the financial instruments or the particular issue and placement procedure, Monte Titoli establishes in the Instructions the cases in which the issuer may request Monte Titoli to arrange exclusively for the crediting of the financial instruments to the accounts of the intermediaries on condition that the issuer issues a specific certificate of placement and/or subscription.

4. If parts of the same issue are registered with more than one central depository or other entities, Monte Titoli will record the balance corresponding to the part of the issue registered initially in its accounting records, in the account specified by paragraph 1.
5. The initial registration of the financial instruments does not affect the statutory obligations arising from ownership of the rights attaching to the financial instruments in question.
6. Following the initial registration, corporate transactions relevant to financial instruments of the initial registration are processed through Monte Titoli and regulated under the Service Supporting Corporate Events.
7. The operating procedures for the initial registration of the financial instruments are described by the Instructions.

Article 20 – Reconciliation measures

1. Once all the transactions carried out on each accounting day have been completed, Monte Titoli carries out the reconciliation process pursuant to article 59 of European regulation (EU) no. 392/2017, for each issue registered initially in its accounting system.
2. In the case of financial instruments subject to coupon-stripping and replenishment transactions, reconciliation is carried out solely for the balances of the intermediaries' accounts.
3. If parts of the same issue are initially registered with more than one central depository or other entity Monte Titoli adopts the operational and information protection measures necessary to guarantee the integrity of the issue by entering into specific agreements with the entities involved, as provided by articles 61, 62, 63 and 64 of European regulation (EU) no. 392/2017.
4. Where, as a result of the reconciliation process, any inconsistency or asymmetry is ascertained between the balance of a specific issue, and the sum of the balances of the accounts of Intermediaries, Monte Titoli adopts the necessary control procedures and measures to ensure the integrity of the issue and protect the investors, including the suspension of the financial instrument under the Settlement Service, pursuant to article 65 of European Regulation (EU) no. 392/2017. These measures are specified in the Instructions.
5. In the cases provided by the above paragraph, Monte Titoli may ask the intermediaries for any information that may be required to correctly reconcile the balances of the securities accounts.

6. Monte Titoli carries out the reconciliation procedures specified by this article, before executing the corporate transactions that modify the balance of the securities accounts of the issuers and intermediaries.

Article 21 – Account statement of the Issuer

1. At the end of each accounting day, Monte Titoli shall send the transaction statements to the issuers as a record of all accounting movements carried out on the financial instruments.
2. If the issuer finds any discrepancies in the statements and/or the communications relating to the individual account movements carried out in the course of the day, they may notify these in writing within the day after the date of receipt of same.

3. Notifications shall be sent on a monthly basis, within the fifth working day of each month, of the actual movements of all the financial instruments that have taken place until the last day of the previous month.
4. If the financial instruments are not withdrawn from Monte Titoli, they are returned by Monte Titoli, even through the Issuer, at the expense and risk of the Intermediary.

Article 23 – Exclusion of financial instruments

1. Financial instruments are excluded from the notary service:
 - a) if they no longer satisfy the admission requirements;
 - b) if the issuing company is dissolved or liquidated.
2. If the dematerialized financial instruments are excluded, Monte Titoli provides the Issuer with a statement of its accounting records showing the amount of each issue, the identification data of the intermediaries who hold the financial instruments excluded and the balances of the relevant securities accounts, in accordance with the provisions contained in the Instructions so that the issuer may carry out the transactions that are necessary as a result of the change in the form and circulation system of the financial instruments.
3. Where registered paper-based financial instruments are excluded, Monte Titoli makes them available to the issuer or intermediaries for withdrawal, in the manner described by the Instructions and Operating Documents.
4. Where financial instruments are excluded as a result of the dissolution or liquidation of the company, Monte Titoli clears the balance of the Issuer's and Intermediaries' accounts pertaining to the excluded financial instruments.

5. Where the application of the dematerialisation obligation ceases on the financial instruments, Monte Titoli does not exclude the financial instruments from the service, if this has not expressly been requested by the issuer.
6. Monte Titoli notifies the issuers, the intermediaries, Consob and the Bank of Italy that the financial instruments have been excluded.

Issuers who participate in the service pursuant to paragraph 1, may also use the services of Monte Titoli.

Article 27 – Maintaining accounts as intermediaries

1. In the name and at the request of the intermediaries, Monte Titoli shall open, for each of these, separate own accounts and third party accounts, each of which shall be subdivided into as many sub-accounts as the financial instruments registered on the same.
2. Third-party accounts may be used to record securities held by the different clients of an intermediary ("third-party omnibus accounts") or to record securities held by an individual customer of an intermediary ("segregated accounts at an individual customer level").

This statement will also indicate the quantity of any financial instruments not available for transfer or delivery for settlement as well as any movements in the account(s) occurred during the day, if these have not been notified before.
7. The intermediaries verify on a daily basis that the data communicated in the account statement sent by Monte Titoli complies with their own accounting data. If Intermediaries find any discrepancies in the statements and/or the communications relating to the individual account movements carried out in the course of the day, they shall give notification in writing within the day following the receipt of same.

- Participants are informed of the result of the validation process.

Article 69 – Matching of Settlement Instructions

- The matching is carried out to check that the information corresponds to the settlement instructions entered.
- The T2S system supplies the participants with complete disclosure regarding the status of the settlement instructions entered and the settlement instructions entered by the counterparty awaiting matching (allegement).
- The matching checks referred to in paragraph 1 cover mandatory matching fields, but may also regard the non-mandatory matching fields.
- Unmatched settlement instructions may be changed by the Participants, but only as regards status indicators.

Article 70 - Cancellation of the settlement Instructions

- Settlement Instructions may be unilaterally cancelled by the Participant which entered them up to the time of the matching, on condition that such Settlement Instructions were not entered as non-changeable.
- Matched settlement Instructions may be cancelled bilaterally, with the consent of both Participants, or upon request of an entity acting on their behalf, subject to the prior submission to Monte Titoli of the relevant mandate.
- Cancellations are sent by the Participants with the methods and the time frames provided for in the Instructions. They then go through the acquisition phase and, if referring to matched settlement Instructions, the matching phase. When the cancellations are matched, the original settlement Instructions are cancelled.
- Market Management Companies and central counterparties may ask Monte Titoli to block these functionalities with regard to their settlement Instructions, according to the methods and conditions provided for in the operating rules for these systems and in accordance with the provisions for T2S.
- Cancellations may also be entered by Monte Titoli at the request of the Participants and in the other cases established by the Rules, in accordance with the provisions above.

- In the event of an obvious technical error, at the request and under the responsibility of the Markets Management Companies and/or of the Central Counterparties, Monte Titoli will carry out the settlement Instructions transmitted within the context of the procedures for managing errors, in observance of the contents of Italian Legislative Decree 210/2001.
- If an insolvency procedure is started against a participant or indirect participant, Monte Titoli promptly activates the operating procedures indicated in the Instructions, aimed at managing the settlement Instructions relating to the insolvent party. These procedures include:
 - in the event of an insolvent participant, the block: i) on the acquisition of new settlement Instructions in the Settlement System that are attributable to the insolvent Participant; and ii) on amendments to Settlement Instructions already in the Settlement System that are attributable to the same entity;
 - in the event of an insolvent Indirect participant, the block on the acquisition of Settlement Instructions in the Settlement System, attributable to the insolvent Indirect Participant that are already entered in the X-TRM Service;

In the event of an insolvent Indirect participant, which belongs to one of the categories under Article 58, paragraph 1, letters a) b), and c) the Settlement Service participant that settles transactions on behalf of the Indirect participant may, under its own responsibility, send new settlement Instructions to be drawn on the accounts referred to in Article 58, paragraph 4, letter b), for the exclusive purpose of exercising retention and security rights, within the limits provided by law.

1. The provisions referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall apply to securities transfer orders.
2. The finality and irrevocability of cash transfer orders are governed by the provisions of the TARGET2 System, as provided for in Guideline ECB 2015/930 of 2 April 2015 amending Guideline ECB/2012/27 on a Trans-European Automated Real-time Gross settlement Express Transfer system (TARGET2). Monte Titoli supplies the foregoing information in its Service Information Notices referred to in article 83.
3. Insolvency procedures referred to in paragraph 5 shall take into account the coordination of the moments of finality and irrevocability of transfer orders of securities and cash.

Article 73– Automatic mechanisms for posting Collateral

1. The participants to the Settlement Service and/or their Agent Banks that have previously communicated their intention to avail themselves of the automatic mechanisms for posting Collateral must, with the methods and time frames provided for in the Instructions, indicate the securities accounts and/or the positions that can be used for collateralisation and the exposure limits to be considered in the settlement process.
2. The activation of the collateralisation mechanisms causes the automatic generation of settlement instructions by the Settlement Service. The settlement instructions arising from collateralisation are settled jointly with the original Settlement Instructions, relative to which the mechanism for posting Collateral was activated.

Article 74 – Processing of the settlement Instructions

1. The settlement process includes a night-time phase and a day-time phase. In each phase the Settlement Instructions are processed on a gross basis.
2. In each phase, according to the eligibility criteria of the settlement Instructions, Monte Titoli settles:
 - a) the new settlement Instructions entered before each phase during the night-time settlement phase and in real-time during the daytime phase, including the instructions for realignment and those resulting from any corporate actions; and

- b) the Settlement Instructions that remained unsettled in the previous phase.

3. The settlement Instructions are processed through the following steps:

- a) check on the settlement status of the instruction;
- b) check on the counterparties' securities and cash account capacities. This includes verifying whether resources are available as a result of collateralisation, as well as checking any exposure limits set by the Participant or its Agent Bank in the TARGET2 system;
- c) if there is securities and cash capacity, T2S settles the securities by debiting the Seller and crediting the Purchaser with the amount of the transaction.

4. If a number of settlement instructions are handled jointly in the same phase for reasons of optimisation, T2S makes the checks referred to in letter b) of the previous paragraph, based on the net balance following the relevant settlement Instructions. If there is not enough capacity to settle the net balance, T2S identifies the settlement Instructions that cannot be settled and then, taking into account their characteristics:

- checks the possibility of settling them through a collateralisation process, in the event of a cash deficit;
- checks the possibility of partially settling them, in the event of a securities deficit.

5. Settlement Instructions that have not been settled because of insufficient securities or cash are re-proposed in the subsequent phase of the same settlement day or for settlement on the subsequent day, until they are settled or cancelled in accordance with the Article 70.

6. Participants may change settlement Instructions that have been proposed again, also partially, but only with regard to the status indicators, on condition that such settlement Instructions have not been entered as non-changeable.

Article 75 – Sequence in Processing Settlement Instructions

1. To improve the efficiency of the settlement process, TS2 implements optimisation mechanisms aimed at maximising its outcome.
2. If several settlement Instructions make use of the resources available on the same securities or cash account, the optimisation process takes into account the priority criteria for the management of settlement Instructions referred to in Article 68, paragraph 5. In the event of equal priority, the settlement Instructions with the earlier settlement date are settled first within the functioning limits of the T2S platform.

Article 76 – Management of non-settled Settlement Instructions (Corporate Action of Flow - CAoF)

1. Monte Titoli may change or cancel the settlement Instructions that have not been settled on the established settlement date and concern financial instruments involved in corporate actions or, in relation to such Instructions, it may enter additional settlement Instructions aimed at rectifying the distorting impacts of the event. The operating procedures for the management of these settlement Instructions are set out in the Instructions.

Article 77 – Cross CSD Settlement

1. If the settlement Instructions are to be settled between a Participant in Monte Titoli, different from another CSD in T2S and a participant in another CSD in T2S (cross CSD), T2S shall automatically carry out the movements between the securities accounts of the participants involved, of the Investor CSDs and of the Issuer CSD.
2. Monte Titoli does not envisage the possibility of carrying out a cross CSD settlement on securities if the Issuer CSD is outside of T2S, unless both investor CSDs have in place a link with another CSD in T2S so that the realignment with the Issuer CSD outside T2S is not necessary.

Article 78 – Disclosure regarding the progress of the process

1. If requested by the Participants, Monte Titoli makes available the events that change the balance in their securities account, supplying in real time the settlement status of each transaction being processed, all the information useful for monitoring it, as well as the settlement of the whole transaction. This disclosure is made available through the direct link channel to T2S, or through the X-TRM Service.
