NYSE Liffe U.S will also launch a comprehensive family of interest rate futures in Q1 2011. This will be launched in parallel with the launch of New York Portfolio Clearing (NYPC), its innovative new clearing joint venture with DTCC. NYSE Liffe U.S. will launch Eurodollar futures as well as 2 year, 5 year, 10 year and 30 year U.S. Treasury futures. Options on these futures are expected to be launched in Q2 2011.

Interest rate futures listed on NYSE Liffe U.S will benefit from the operational and capital efficiencies through the NYPC clearing solution. NYPC will deliver unique capital efficiencies achieved by calculating margin requirements based on the total risk within a common FICC and NYPC members's portfolio of US fixed income securities and derivatives. Additionally all participants that transact U.S. Treasury futures on NYSE Liffe U.S. will benefit from a highly efficient, streamlined delivery process at expiry between FICC cash bond positions and NYPC futures positions, substantially reducing settlement risks at delivery.
