A propos d'Euronext

Euronext est un groupe leader d'infrastructure de marché pan-européen, connectant les économies locales aux marchés financiers mondiaux, pour accélérer l'innovation et la croissance durable. Il opère en Belgique, en France, en Irlande, en Italie, en Norvège, aux Pays-Bas et au Portugal. Avec près de 1 900 émetteurs, représentant une capitalisation boursière totale de près de 5 600 milliards d'euros à fin mars 2021, il dispose d'une franchise inégalée d'indices de premier ordre et d'une solide base de clients diversifiés nationaux et internationaux. Euronext gère des marchés au comptant et dérivés, réglementés et transparents et représente le plus grand centre de cotation d'obligations et de fonds au monde. Son offre recouvre des produits variés tels que les actions, les changes, les ETF (Exchange Traded Funds), les warrants et certificats, les obligations, les dérivés sur actions, les dérivés sur matières premières et les indices. Euronext met également à profit son expertise en fournissant des solutions technologiques et des services administrés à des tiers. En complément de son principal marché réglementé, Euronext gère également des marchés de croissance qui facilitent et simplifient la cotation des petites et moyennes entreprises. Euronext fournit également des services de conservation et de règlement de titres par l'intermédiaire de dépositaires centraux au Danemark, en Italie, en Norvège et au Portugal.
