Confirmation of requirements for participation

To the attention of:	All clients
Topic:	Requirements for participation

Dear Client,

According to the applicable contractual provisions, participation in ES-MIL services is subject to the Client's fulfilment of the participation requirements established in the Service Rules for each service.

By signing a Service Request, the Client declares that it is aware of and accepts the General Conditions, including the Annexes which contain the Regulations and Instructions, and undertakes, inter alia, to ensure that the subjective and objective requirements for participation remain in place and to immediately report any circumstance that affects these requirements and that could lead to suspension or exclusion from the service.

The Client undertakes to notify any change its operating conditions and the data provided in the Participation Documentation.

In accordance with this requirement and in order to enable ES-MIL to ensure the ongoing fulfilment of the participation requirements, we ask you to notify us of any changes in the subjective and objective requirements for participation.

Please note that no notification is necessary if no change has occurred.

Clients are reminded that the General Conditions and the Service Rules are available on the Euronext Securities Milan website at <https://www.euronext.com/it/post-trade/euronext-securities/milan/membership/contratti-e-corrispettivi> and
