New organisational structure in Euronext Milan – Business Operations

Attention to: Intermediaries

Subject: New Organisational structure

Dear client,

We are pleased to announce that, with a view to sharpening the focus on some of our “core” activities, with effect from 5 June 2023, the Business Operations area of Euronext Securities Milan is undergoing a change in its organisational structure:

- a new “Corporate Actions” office is established, with a mandate to manage reorganisations of domestic and international securities together with all activities related to the management of government securities.
- A new “Income & Fiscal Services” office is established with a mandate to manage “cash distribution and fiscal services” for domestic and international securities.
- Responsibility for FIS (Standardised Information Flows) support and communications regarding shareholders’ meeting events is assigned to the “Register & AGM Services” office.
- Responsibility for registration of domestic and international securities is assigned to the “Membership” office.
- Responsibility for the placement of domestic issues is assigned to the “Settlement” office.
