NYSE LIFFE INTRODUCES MARKET PARTICIPANT PROGRAMME FOR LATIN AMERICA

São Paulo, Monday, 5 December 2011 – NYSE Liffe, the global derivatives business of NYSE Euronext (NYX), today announced the introduction of a Market Participation Programme (MPP) for Latin American based participants.

The introduction of the MPP in Latin America allows regional participants to benefit from NYSE Liffe's trading fee rebates on specified Commodity, Fixed Income and Equity futures contracts, available on LIFFE CONNECT® – our global trading platform.

Carlota Godinho, Business Development Manager, NYSE Liffe, said: "We have been actively consulting with local market users as to the types of initiatives, products and services they would like NYSE Liffe to offer."

"NYSE Liffe wanted to create an attractive programme with a straightforward application process for all qualifying firms. The introduction of the MPP for Latin American Members and their clients illustrates NYSE Liffe's commitment to the region, as well as our dedication to developing our franchise amongst the Latin American investor community."

The MPP will apply to specified futures contracts and NYSE Liffe is accepting applications from now until 30 November 2012. The programme is accessible, with a simple application process, for Members and non Members of the Exchange that are based in Latin America.
