

AgFeed Industries, Inc. lists on NYSE Alternext

Paris, 31 March 2010 – NYSE Euronext today announced the admission to NYSE Alternext of AgFeed Industries, Inc., one of the largest independent hog production and hog nutrient companies in China.

AgFeed's admission, the first cross-listing from a U.S. listed company on NYSE Alternext this year, was performed thanks to the NYSE Alternext's rules¹ that enable U.S. listed companies to use their SEC filings to gain access to NYSE Euronext European markets. The admission of AgFeed Industries, Inc. on NYSE Alternext took place following the direct listing of the 44,143,263 existing shares. AgFeed's trading symbol is ALHOG.

The admission and issue price of AgFeed Industries, Inc. shares was set at €3.37 each, based on the closing price of AgFeed shares on 30 March 2010 converted into Euros on the basis of EUR/USD exchange rate of the same trading day. The company's capitalization on the day of admission amounted to €148,762,796.31 million.

The admission of AgFeed further affirms the attractiveness of NYSE Alternext for international issuers, with AgFeed representing the 11th international issuer and the 4th Chinese business to list on NYSE Alternext.

"We are delighted at the success of AgFeed's listing on NYSE Alternext, which is the first cross-listing from a U.S. listed company on NYSE Alternext this year," commented Ronald Kent, Group Executive Vice President and Head of International Listings at NYSE Euronext. "NYSE Alternext is a tremendous market for companies like AgFeed which want to benefit from our European reach, attracting more and more investors and thus increasing liquidity level."

Dr. Songyan Li, AgFeed's Chairman stated, "As we have grown our business, we have had many inquiries from international investors about our unique approach to and business mission within the multi-billion dollar Chinese hog industry. We view the EU as a vibrant financial market and our NYSE Alternext listing as an important component of not only building our investor base, but also the third leg of our business, harvesting, as we become a fully integrated hog production company."

NYSE Alternext today counts 131 listed companies from countries including Belgium, Canada, China, France, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Spain, the UK and the US. They have raised over €2.26 billion altogether and their market capitalization totals €4.4 billion.

About AgFeed

AgFeed Industries (<http://www.agfeedinc.com/>) is a U.S. company with its primary operations in China. AgFeed has two profitable business lines -- animal nutrients in premix, concentrates and complete feeds and hog production. AgFeed is one of China's largest commercial hog producers in terms of total annual hog production as well as one of its largest hog nutrition companies in terms of revenues. China is the world's largest hog producing country that produced over 645 million hogs in 2009, compared to approximately 100 million hogs produced annually in the U.S. China also has the world's largest consumer base for pork consumption. Over 62% of total meat consumed in China is pork. Hog production in China enjoys income tax free status. The feed markets in which AgFeed operates represent a $20 billion segment of China's $58 billion per year animal feed market.
