Dockwise Celebrates First Day of Trading on NYSE Euronext's European market

Amsterdam, December, 3, 2009 – Dockwise Ltd, the world's leading contractor for heavy marine transport and a supplier of logistics management, procurement and engineering services for heavy marine transport and installation projects today listed on NYSE Euronext, Amsterdam and began trading on NYSE Euronext under the ticker symbol 'DOCKW'.

"Dockwise is a highly successful Dutch company and a market leader in heavy marine transport. It is a great addition to NYSE Euronext's European market," said Joost van der Does de Willebois, CEO of NYSE Euronext, Amsterdam.

"We welcome Dockwise and look forward to a strong partnership providing the company and its shareholders with the best level of market quality, services and global brand visibility," said Ronald Kent, Executive Vice President and Head of International Listings for NYSE Euronext.

André Goedée, CEO of Dockwise Ltd said: "This NYSE Euronext listing finishes an extensive balance sheet restructuring project, transforming Dockwise from a Leveraged Buy Out into a regular Corporate, ready for the future. It should also enable Dockwise to reach out to an even bigger investment community, thus creating better liquidity in the stock."

To mark today's special occasion, André Goedée, CEO of Dockwise Ltd, sounded the Gong which denotes the opening of NYSE Euronext's European market, joined by Dockwise executives, the listing agent, the NYSE Euronext listing team and Joost van der Does de Willebois, CEO, NYSE Euronext, Amsterdam.

After opening, the first market price was €21.90 per share. Based on the total number of 20,643,872 shares the total market capitalization of the company at opening price was €452,100,797. Dockwise Ltd is already listed on the Oslo Stock Exchange.
