

OPTIQ PHASE 2: AMENDMENT OF CURRENT OEG SBE TEMPLATE IN V-EUA

Summary

Euronext informs customers that OEG SBE template version 101 has been very slightly amended in V-EUA. Customers who do not take into consideration case sensitivity of the field names, will not be impacted.

SBE TEMPLATE VERSION 101

As a reminder, the Order Entry Gateway (OEG) and Market Data Gateway (MDG) SBE templates schema version number 101 was activated in V-EUA on Tuesday 20 March. The templates have been on the Euronext website and on the EFS since Tuesday 27 February.

The OEG SBE template which provides TCS messages in line with the updated TCS specifications is also version 101.

CHANGE IN THE NEW TEMPLATE

Upper case c in one field (clientIdentificationShortCode) has been modified to a lower case, to be in line with other instances of that field. The new field is now clientIdentificationShortcode.

Customers who do not take into consideration case sensitivity of the field names, will not be impacted.

DOCUMENTATION UPDATE

Euronext informs customers that the template is now available on the Euronext website and also on EFS:
